

Under no circumstances should New Jersey's consumer protection laws be weakened. It is such a relief not to have to deal with unsolicited calls on a daily basis. I am sure I speak for the majority of the citizens in our state: Do not overturn the 'Do Not Call' list.